Dr. F. C. Crow, Guest Speaker
For Licensed Practical Nurses

The Licensed Practical Nurses
heard about the legal aspects of nursing from their guest speaker, Dr. F. C. Crow, at a meeting in the City Hall courtroom on September 8.
Dr. Crow called attention to the rules of law governing the nursing profession, as well as contracts, duties, and liabilities concerning it. He concluded his talk by quoting some fitting proverbs.
A general discussion followed on the subject of practicing nursing without a license. Routine business of the local organization was conducted by the president, Mrs. Sam Reavis. An inspiring devotion and prayer were given by Mrs. Orville Steadman.

Hoffman-Boylett Wed
In Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Harriet Hoffman and Charles Boylett Jr., were married Saturday, Sept. 5, in the First Presbyterian Church in Searcy. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry W.
Hoffman of Searcy and the late Mr. Hoffman and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Comer Boylett of Hope.

The Rev. Robert J. Stewart of Morrilton, assisted by the Rev.
John Butterworth III, pastor, officiated before a setting of sunburst arrangements of chrysanthemums and gladioli in autumn colors. Baskets of the same flowers, flared wrought-iron candle holders with yellow tapers, fern trees and gardens of greenery completed the decorations.

Bobby Scott Fuller was organist
and accompanied Mrs. James Robbins, soloist, who sang "A Seal Upon Thy Heart" and "Calm As
The Night." The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Robert W. Hoffman of Little Rock. Her gown was of white peau de soie, floor-length, fashioned with a scoop neckline and long sleeves. Her finger veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and aurora borrea stones. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of creamy yellow gladioli with green satin leaves.
Miss Marlene Garrison of Searcy
served as maid of honor and Mr.
Boylett served his son as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor.
After a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast, the couple will be at home in Searcy.

Franks-Robertson Exchange
Vows in Afternoon Ceremony
Miss Judy Franks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clane Franks, became the bride of James Kent Robertson of Dallas, son of Mr.
and Mrs. F. T. Robertson of New Castle, Pa., Saturday afternoon,
Sept. 5 in the First Christian Church with the Rev. Edmund
Pendleton of North Little Rock officiating.

Vows were pledged before a bridal arch entwined with huckleberry greenery. White bird baths filled with white gladioli and lemon foliage were placed on either side of the arch. Tall baskets of white gladioli and tall seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers were on either side of the chancel. Traditional white satin bows and greenery marked the church pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk peau de soie and re-embroidered aleneon lace. The climaxed bodice was fashioned with the front panel extending to the hemline of the skirt which fell to floor length. A yoke of aleneon lace embroidered in seed pearls featured a scalloped crest and neckline sculptured close to the shoulders, her long, tapered, peau de soie sleeves fitting closely to the wrists with self buttons and extending in deep points over the hands. The voluminous skirt applied with pearl embroidered aleneon lace and accented with double bow in back ascended almost to the hemline
as the skirt floated into a full court train. To complete her attire the bride chose a French cap encrusted with pearls and iridescent sequins from which fell a very full, tiered, waist-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and hemlock with strands of pearls
and satin ribbon.

Mrs. Louis Sutton Jr. of Little Rock and Mrs. Dale Dunn, sisters of the bride, served as bridesmaids.
They wore white waist-length taffeta dresses fashioned like that of the bride. They wore hats of pearl encrusted silk illusion and carried cascade bouquets of autumn bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and hemlock complimented with matching buckwheat and pine needles.
Miss Debbie Dunn, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a white taffeta dress. She carried a basket interwoven with yellow and bronze satin ribbons and filled with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, matching buckwheat, and tufts of pine needles.
Master David Sutton of Little Rock, nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer and carried a satin pillow which bore the ring for the double ring ceremony.

Bruce Robertson of New Castle,
Pa., served his brother as best man, and Lester Bickelstaff of Dallas, Texas, was the groom-smen. Ushers who also lighted the candles were Jim Bass and John Wadsworth, both of Dallas. Also from Dallas, and serving as an usher was J. L. Wainwright.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Susan Davis, vocal soloist
and cousin of the bride, Miss Jo-Beth Rettig, pianist, and Luther Holloman, organist. Miss Davis sang "Because," "With This Ring"
and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a blue peau
de soie with matching accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a steel gray suit of peau de soie with matching accessories. Each pinned a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids at her shoulder.

A reception was held in the Franks home immediately following the ceremony. The brides table

Many of the fabrics in the current Paris collections have a thick, bulky look and actually are very lightweight. Jacques Heim does a suit (left) in acrilan caterpillar velvet. The color is cognac and is matched exactly to the shade of the fox collar. Jacket shows the new longer length. Suit by Castillo for Lanvin (right) has gigantic cape collar and sleek, molded body lines. It's designed for the tall, slim figure. Teddy Tries Going Steady
After 16 Wandering Years

Dear Dorothy Dix: My wife and I have been married 16 years and have had a happy life with very few quarrels. I have had one very bad weakness that few women should have to take in a husband. This is a weakness for other women. From time to time I have gotten tangled up with some other woman. It would last a couple of months, then I would straighten out and live as I should. This has happened at least half a dozen times during our married life. Through it all my wife has been wonderful — so wonderful that after each escapade I would feel completely ashamed of myself.

Louisiana State University, has pledged Phi Mu Sorority. A 1959 honor graduate of the Hope High School, Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cole.

Continuing their studies at Baylor University will be Lanelle Fuller and Mary Jean Sparks who leave for Waco, Tex., this week-end.

Going to Ruston, La. this week-end to enroll in Louisiana Tech are Anna Whitman and Buddy Ball.

Judy McDowell will enter Texas Women's University in Denton, Texas this weekend as a freshman.

Enrolling at the Arkansas Baptist School of Nursing in Little Rock this weekend will be Linda Purdie, a 1959 Hope High graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Steadman of Shreveport have returned home after visiting friends and relatives in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCannies of Cisco, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. LeCaste of Cloud Croft, N.M., and E. N. Strickland of Cisco, Texas have returned to their homes after attending funeral services here for Mrs. J. W. Strickland.

Mrs. Seth S. Hall of Pasadena, Calif. and Jack Strickland of Houston are visiting J. W. Strickland.

About two months ago I decided I'd better settle down as I am pushing 40. I've done very well and have even helped my wife round the house. The other day I learned to my astonishment that my wife has fallen in love with another man. She has always been very affectionate to me; now I'm lucky to get a good night kiss. She has been completely honest about it and has told me exactly where she stands. She's making a terrible mistake. I love her completely, not only because I feel I've lost her but because I reformed before I knew about this. What can I do to salvage my marriage?—Teddy

Dear Ted: Your letter brought tears to my eyes — tears of rage. For 16 years you've put your wife through the wringer. Now you are hurt because you have been through it for a week or so. You win an Oscar for being the most selfish fool I've encountered this year. Your "reformation" is as phony as your deep "remorse." You are sorry only between affairs. Believe me it's been one long lullaby for your wife. She's endured it for the sake of the kids and maybe because she loved you — at first. But you have effectively and permanently killed any respect, love or obligation she's ever felt for you. It's over now, Ted. You killed it all. Aren't you proud of yourself? You've ruined the whole family, so dry the crocodile tears. It's up to your wife now.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Are all your letters opened and answered personally or is more than one person involved in your correspondence? Are all the letters that appear in the paper real or do you make them up?—Curious

Dear Curious: My mail is much too large to be handled entirely by one person; I have a most efficient, capable and trustworthy staff to screen them. These requiring it get special attention. All letters accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope are answered personally. All the letters

One New TV Series May Be Different

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—One new television series, at least, promises to be differently different. June Allyson, hostess and sometimes star of her own forthcoming Dupont Show, announces that it is aimed especially at women.

"Just about all there has been for the women has been the Loretta Young show and the old, old movies," comments the lily, blonde actress. "We're going to give women some good half-hour dramas, the kind that will sometimes give them a chance to have a good cry or a good laugh."

In pursuance of this goal, Miss Allyson's show starting Sept. 21 will star such seasoned and popular women stars as Irene Dunne, Bette Davis, Ann Harding and Ginger Rogers.

It's too bad nobody can find a fall spot for Andy Williams and company who have been doing such an imaginative and delightful job all summer in the Garry Moore Show spot. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's U. S. visit, starting next Tuesday, will be covered by TV and radio more thoroughly than anything since the last World Series and may possibly raise hooch with regular programming schedules. Ingrid Bergman arrives in New York Saturday to start rehearsals for Henry James' "Turn of the Screw" which will be taped and presented on NBC's "Starline," Oct. 20. Arthur Godfrey, recuperating from lung cancer surgery, will host a salute to the Eleanor Roosevelt Cancer Research Instiprinted in your newspaper are real.

Dear Dorothy Dix: When I applied for my driver's license the young man behind the desk was most attractive and I would like to know him better. How could I meet him again?—Tootsie

Dear Tootsie: Round up all your girl friends who don't have licenses, take them down to the motor vehicle bureau and maybe you'll be lucky enough to meet the same young man again. If the attraction is mutual, he has plenty of information about you and could easily get in touch with you.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Bobcats Hope to Hold Down Score at P. B.

The Hope Bobcats ended their practice season in fair physical condition and will journey to Pine Bluff tonight for their first game of the season.

Pine Bluff is heavily favored to win by a two or three touchdown margin. This is based on the fact that the Zebra has an all-veteran team that outweighs Hope by some 15 pounds per man and they are out to get even for a 32-0 shellacking at the hands of Hope last year.

The Bobcats lost a good many from last season's undefeated eleven. They are much lighter and are sadly lacking in experience. But they have been trying awfully hard, according to Coach Pierce and Sevier and will make every effort to play a good ball game.

Many fans will accompany the team to Pine Bluff via a caravan which will meet at the Ideal Cafe and leave about 4 p.m.

Big Nine Conference football teams get their 1950 seasons started tonight with non-conference opposition. Three conference teams will meet old rivals in grudge games.

Blytheville is the underdog in its opener against Osceola. Osceola has beaten the Chicks three years in a row.

The Texarkana Razorbacks, narrow victors over Crossett last week, meet their annual nemesis, the Texarkana, Tex., Tigers.

The Texas side is favored by no more than one touchdown. Fort Smith's Grizzlies battle their across-the-river foe, Van Buren, in what promises to be one of the best games in the state. Fort Smith is favored, but Blair Bates' Pointers should give them some trouble.

Pine Bluff, the general conference favorite, takes on Hope and El Dorado. Last year's title meets Magnolia. The Big Nine teams are favored in both those battles.

North Little Rock opens at home against Subic and the Wildcats are heavily favored.

Hot Springs, defeated by De Queen last week, has an open date and Little Rock Central doesn't open until next week at Paducah, Ky.

A few conference games are scattered through the Class AA schedule, but most teams are playing non-league contests.

Camden meets Camden Fairview in a conference game that is also an intra-city rivalry. Camden is the favorite.

Forrest City goes to Conway in what should be one of the hotter fringes of the evening. Jonesboro, defeated last week by a surprisingly strong Walnut Ridge team, meets Batesville in an attempt to get its winning foot forward.

Fayetteville, a northwest Arkansas power, meets Huntville in a game generally figured to be in the bag for the Bulldogs. Springfield goes to Pryor, Okla.

Stuttgart meets West Memphis and Helena goes against Paragould in two big ones in northeast Arkansas.

Class A De Queen, the southwest Arkansas school that is distinguishing itself as one of the state's best, journeys to Broken Bow, Okla.

Woman Makes Bond on Slaying Charge

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—A 23-year-old El Dorado woman has been released on $5,000 bond on a charge of first degree murder in the death of Edith Arlene Gage, 36, in a downtown cafe on Aug. 15.

Shirley Sayles, who made bond, is charged along with Mrs. Ann White, 22, in the slaying death. Trial has been set for Sept. 23 in Union Circuit Court.

Passenger pigeons, once common to North America, are now extinct. In colonial days they were so plentiful that the trees beneath their weight, as many as 100 nests were found in a single tree. The birds were about 16 inches long and of slate-blue color. During three centuries of hunting the number of passenger pigeons grew smaller. In 1914, the last died in captivity in Cincinnati.

Indian Castoffs Making Them Pay Dearly Now

By ED WILKS

Early Wynn has a 19-6 record this season for the Chicago White Sox. Bud Daley is 13-12 for Kansas City. Hoyt Wilhelm is 14-11 for Baltimore. All three have winning records over Cleveland.

So what? So it's a bit ironic that the Indians, who once owned all three, now are so hard up for pitching while trying to stay alive in that American League pennant race that they're going to give infielder Grady Hatfield another crack at it.

Hatfield tried once before. One of the Whiz Kids who brought the National League pennant to Philadelphia in 1950, he took a shot at pitching with the Phils in 1946 because of an ailing shoulder that gave him trouble when he batted.

The experiment didn't work. He pitched just nine innings in four games over two seasons for a 0-1 record.

Wilhelm, the knuckleballing right-hander, Cleveland didn't want, hung the Indians up to dry again Thursday night, clipping their winning streak at six with a three-hitter as Baltimore beat the second place Tribe 6-1. That left Cleveland 4½ games behind the White Sox, who were belted 8-2 by Washington but reduced their magic number to 11.

New York regained third place with a 12-1 romp over Kansas City. The A's 13th straight loss, while Detroit dropped to fourth with a 7-3 defeat at Boston.

In the National League, Milwaukee and Los Angeles tied for second, trimmed San Francisco's lead to two games. The Giants lost 5-3 to Pittsburgh while the Braves, winning five in a row, beat St. Louis 7-4 and the Dodgers rapped Philadelphia 5-0 behind Roger Craig's three-hitter. Cincinnati split a pair at Chicago, winning 10-4 before the Cubs took a 6-3 decision.

The White Sox were knocked over by three Washington home runs that backed a four-hitter by Emilio Pascual (14-10). Harmon Killebrew, lying Cleveland's Rocky Colavito for the AL lead with his 40th, Jim Lemon and Lennie Green tagged the homers, all two-run shots.

Dick Donovan (9-8) was the loser. Wilhelm missed a shutout over the Indians in the eighth inning, on a walk, two passed balls and an infield out. Russ Nixon singled for two of Cleveland's hits. Woody Held doubled for the other.

Brooks Robinson drove in four runs for the Birds, hammering a three-run homer in the eighth off reliever Herb Score. He doubled home their first run as they scored three in the fourth against Los Angeles Cal McLish (17-8).

Dodgers and Braves May Get to Giant

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Editor Things don't look good for San Francisco's Giants in that National League pennant race. Not with the Milwaukee Braves riding a five-game streak after two perky, come-from-behind victories and Los Angeles pitchers back in business.

The Braves and Dodgers, tied for second, trimmed San Francisco's lead to two games Thursday as the Giants and 19-game winner Johnny Antonelli blew a 3-1 lead and lost 5-3 to Pittsburgh. Milwaukee moved in with a four-run seventh inning that beat St. Louis 7-4. And Los Angeles kept the pace with a 5-0 job on Philadelphia as Roger Craig gave the Dodgers staff two consecutive three-hit shutouts and a string of 23 scoreless innings.

Cincinnati split a pair at Chicago, winning 10-4 before the Cubs took a 7-3 decision. In the American League, Chicago's White Sox lost 8-2 at Washington but retained a 4½-game lead over Baltimore defeated second place Cleveland 6-1 on York took third place, by a half-romp over the Kansas City A's, who now have lost 12 in a row. Boston beat the Tigers 7-3.

Craig (2-5), a right-hander, who hadn't put away a complete game against the Phils in 10 tries since 1936, faced the minimum 18 men over the last six innings while matching Don Drysdale's three-hit job of Wednesday night. The Dodgers beat Don Cardwell (9-8) with a pair of unearned runs in the first inning on an error, walk and Norm Larker's single. Their other three came in the fifth when Maury Wills, who had four of their seven hits, and Charley Neal each tripled.

Milwaukee built a 3-0 lead against Larry Jackson, who had shut out the Dodgers and Giants in his last two starts, by a half-romp over the Kansas City A's. Cards took a 4-2 lead with three runs in the seventh against Juan Pizarro and Bob Rush. Then the Braves bounced back for their scoring three on Hank Aaron's double after losing reliever Lindy McDaniel (14-12) had loaded the bases with three consecutive walks.

Don McMahon (5-2) won it with a one-hit, two-inning mopup that officially eliminated the seventh place Cards from the race. The Pirates, who had lost four in a row, caught the Giants with four runs in the seventh. An error by Danny O'Connell let in the tying run and Bob Clemente then put it away with a two-run single. Vern Law (16-9) went all the way for the victory.

Khrushchey Dinner Is a Sellout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Sept. 22 banquet for Nikita Khrushchey is a 2,100 seat sellout before any tickets are available.

So the World Affairs Council and Commonwealth Club joint sponsors today are trying to arrange for standees outside the banquet room to hear the Soviet premier's address.

THE STORY: Ross Mallory, with the border patrol in California, is in temporary disfavor, because his dog attacked an illegal immigrant. He is not aware yet that headed for Mexico is a tramp steamer carrying a mutant variety of the plague bacillus, which will affect his destiny. The disease already has caused the death of the father of a girl veterinarian with the border service.

CHAPTER V

Public Health wasn't doing any more business than the rest of the border interchange. The disease was empty except for the male nurse who was drinking a cola and reading an old magazine. He looked up, yawning, as Mallory came in. "What's your problem?"

"Need a booster," Mallory replied shortly. "Okay, Mallory, isn't it?" The nurse put down his magazine and went to the filing cabinet. He thumbed through the cards until he found the proper one and studied it. "Un-huh, Due for a TnT, Smallpox coming up in about six months. Want to get that out of the way now?"

"No. Just give me what I've got coming," Mallory said, removing his shirt. "Speed it up, won't you?" "What's your rush? The germs aren't going nowhere." He dabbed the upper part of Mallory's arm with alcohol.

Mallory winced as the hypodermic punctured his flesh. As he did so, Mallory discovered that they were not alone in the room. A young woman had come out of the inner office and was filling a paper cup at the water cooler. He recognized her as the Howard girl from Al & QB, the border community was too closely knit not to know everyone who worked there at least by sight. She was watching him as that her gaze held amusement.

"Haven't you ever seen anyone body get a shot before?" She colored slightly with anger but her voice was cool and sarcastic. "I thought from the way you were gritting your teeth that it must be an amputation, at least." She turned and went back down the short hallway before Mallory could think of a reply.

All done," announced the nurse. Mallory hadn't even felt the second inoculation. "Say, I've heard of love at first sight but this is ridiculous."

Khrushchey Dinner Is a Sellout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Sept. 22 banquet for Nikita Khrushchey is a 2,100 seat sellout before any tickets are available.

So the World Affairs Council and Commonwealth Club joint sponsors today are trying to arrange for standees outside the banquet room to hear the Soviet premier's address.

runs for the Birds, hammering a three-run homer in the eighth off reliever Herb Score. He doubled home their first run as they scored three in the fourth against Los Angeles Cal McLish (17-8).

THE STORY: Ross Mallory, with the border patrol in California, is in temporary disfavor, because his dog attacked an illegal immigrant. He is not aware yet that headed for Mexico is a tramp steamer carrying a mutant variety of the plague bacillus, which will affect his destiny. The disease already has caused the death of the father of a girl veterinarian with the border service.

Public Health wasn't doing any more business than the rest of the border interchange. The disease was empty except for the male nurse who was drinking a cola and reading an old magazine. He looked up, yawning, as Mallory came in. "What's your problem?"

"Need a booster," Mallory replied shortly. "Okay, Mallory, isn't it?" The nurse put down his magazine and went to the filing cabinet. He thumbed through the cards until he found the proper one and studied it. "Un-huh, Due for a TnT, Smallpox coming up in about six months. Want to get that out of the way now?"

"No. Just give me what I've got coming," Mallory said, removing his shirt. "Speed it up, won't you?" "What's your rush? The germs aren't going nowhere." He dabbed the upper part of Mallory's arm with alcohol.

Mallory winced as the hypodermic punctured his flesh. As he did so, Mallory discovered that they were not alone in the room. A young woman had come out of the inner office and was filling a paper cup at the water cooler. He recognized her as the Howard girl from Al & QB, the border community was too closely knit not to know everyone who worked there at least by sight. She was watching him as that her gaze held amusement.

"Haven't you ever seen anyone body get a shot before?" She colored slightly with anger but her voice was cool and sarcastic. "I thought from the way you were gritting your teeth that it must be an amputation, at least." She turned and went back down the short hallway before Mallory could think of a reply.

English-American War was the shortest and one of all conflicts in the world. There were 114 days of actual fighting. The war had a huge impact on world affairs and marked the loss of Spain's colonies in America and Asia, and the rise of the U.S. into a world of colonial powers.

IDENTITY?—think the creature is a bear, but it happens to be a deodorized pot of familiar white stripes. He opens wide in a roar, Wis., for his favorite—a marshmallow.

MONEY—Oncetime a sidekick, numbers boss has been told that the federal government will collect $1.35 in income taxes, and interest. There is a plan that the government collect as Lucio's total only $7,000. His Gross Pointe Woods, is in his wife's name.

STYLE CAST—The and latest in feminine fashion is this one decorated with lace at the hem. It's worn by actress Lucretia, Miss Belgium of Hollywood.

BIBLE DEMOCRACY
By WILLIAM E. GROY, D.D.

In the Bible, for those who will delve into its mine and meaning, is a pattern of democracy that seems, to me, to stand out above all else in historic aspirations toward social organization and government. The ideal of democracy has its illustration in the history of Israel—an ideal not always achieved. That is the Old Testament aspect, and in the New Testament, Saint Paul states the principles of democracy, simply and clearly.
